When a new turtle like Gwendolyn Elizabeth shows up for the first time, she will get a metal flipper tag and an internal tag (microchip). This way we can identify her easily each time she comes back to nest and we can track her nesting history over many years.

About Gwendolyn Elizabeth

We saw Gwendolyn Elizabeth just once at Sandy Point this season! She nested on 17 August early in the morning on the West Beach. She chose to lay her nest under bay lavender bushes. We hope to see her back at Sandy Point in a few years!
